

Groot Winterhoek

Deep Dive Wilderness

The Groot Winterhoek Wilderness is known for its rugged, wild landscape, with exceptional rock formations carved by the elements. This mountainous area lies about 180km north of Cape Town, near Porterville.

This is truly an unforgettable experience. The Groot Winterhoek region is so unique and rugged. If you've thought about embarking on an overnight then this is a good one to start with.

*Please note that there are no electricity or hot water.

The weekend will flow as follow:

Friday 6 March:

- Arrival (09.00am)
- Hike to hut (13km) settle in and explore the area
- Dinner

Saturday 7 March:

- Breakfast and start our hike to Die Hel (4km)
- Swim, lunch and good vibes
- Walk back to hut
- Dinner

Sunday 8 March:

- Breakfast
- Walk back out (13km)

Cost is R3200 p.p and includes the following:

your permits | a guide | logistics | accommodation | dinner for 2 nights

You are required to bring your own sleeping bag, hiking pillow, breakfast, lunch and snacks.

Transport/Carpool can also be arranged if you need help getting there.